Announces His Candidacy Subject to Will of Republican Voters at Primary.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 3.—Rutherford M. Kittle, of Barbour county, deputy inspector of public offices in West Virginia, will seek the Republican nomination for state treasurer. Mr. Kittle, known in every county of the state as "Ford" Kittle, made the specific announcement of his candidacy here last night upon his return from a dozen counties in the southern section of the state.

"You can say, unqualifiedly, that I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for state treasurer, that I am in the race now, am active in quest of the nomination, will remain in the race until the primary is held and will be nominated," was the unequivocal declaration of the Barbour county man. "I think that makes my position clear in plain language," he added.

Several months ago I discussed with my friends here and at home, the possibility of my entering the race for the treasury, and I decided then that before I made a definite announcement I would advise with my friends over the state. I wish to say now that conditions warrant my entry into the race for the nomination and the investigation I have made has convinced me that I can and will be nominated.

Without boasting I can say that by experience as deputy inspector of public offices has brought me into close touch with the fiscal affairs of the state and the several counties. I know the needs of the state, and while at this time I shall not enumerate a number of things for which I expect to use my influence, later I shall give to the public my views on a number of questions connected with the administration of the fiscal affairs of the state.

"At this time I think it is sufficient to advise my friends that I am in the race for the nomination."

Mr. Kittle is a brother of Judge Warren B. Kittle, of the Randolph-Barbour circuit and comes from a strong Republican family, which has been prominent in the life of the state. He has a wide acquaintance among the public men of the state due to his visits to the several counties where audits have been made. During the last three years his entire time has practically been spent in the instruction of county officials in connection with the installation of the uniform system of accounting.

WILSON'S OWN STATE

tricts in Kentucky, except the Tenth, and estimated returns from that district, apparently has a majority of 3,687 over Edwin P. Morrow, Republican, of Somerset, for governor. Republican leaders contented themselves with the statement that Mr. Morrow had a safe majority and would make no statement on results. Workers at headquarters, however, said Mr. Morrow's estimated majority might possibly be 5,000.

The majority against woman suffrage in New York state, late reports indicated today, will be from 195,000 to 200,000. With 1,053 of the state's 5,173 districts missing the vote for suffrage was 462,140, against 621,307, a majority against of 159,167. These returns included New York City's 2,079 districts complete. There the vote was 283,843 for suffrage and 323,315 against it, the city's disapproval of the cause being a majority of 89,372. Indications from incomplete returns were that the final count would show that more than 550,000 votes had been cast for "votes for women."

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IS BIG IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—Although the constitutional amendment which would have granted the women of Pennsylvania the right to vote was defeated at yesterday's election the vote against it was not nearly so large as was indicated by last night's meagre returns. Indications early today were that the plurality against the amendment would be reduced to between 50,000 and 60,000. A number of counties outside of Philadelphia returned unfavorable returns for the amendment, while late returns from the others were materially reduced. In Philadelphia, where it was first estimated that suffrage had lost by a very large majority, was reduced to 39,277. Eight hundred and sixty-seven districts out of 5,622 in the state outside of Philadelphia showed that 41,400 votes had been cast for the amendment and 49,983 against it. In Philadelphia suffrage polled 66,596, while 103,873 ballots were cast against it.

The complete vote for mayor in Philadelphia was as follows: Thomas B. Smith, Republican, 159,663; George D. Porter, Independent, 81,821; B. Gordon Bromley, Democrat, 5,308.

Suffragists refused to accept yesterday's result as a defeat and planned to celebrate their "victory" by holding a big public meeting here tonight. With about fifty per cent of the state heard from on the woman suffrage amendment the returns show a majority against suffrage of 49,385. This includes Philadelphia's majority against the proposed amendment of 39,277. The vote at this time was for suffrage 141,239; against, 190,624. About twenty-five of the sixty-seven counties in the state were carried by the suffragists by small majorities.

LICENSE REFUSED.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 3.—A license for the Wabash Railway Company, now an Indiana corporation, to operate in Missouri, was refused today by Secretary of State Roach.
